Legal Consultation and Representation Solution

If you are looking for full legal representation at any custodial hearing, our Legal Consultation and Representation Solution is ideal.

A member of Clive Rees and Associates' expert lawyers will handle your case in its entirety, from start to finish, professionally and reliably.

Our legal team has acquired a huge amount of experience in contesting – and winning – child custodial and visitation cases, and knows precisely what is needed to fight your case on your behalf. By choosing our Legal Consultation and Representation Solution, you will benefit from total peace of mind as a dedicated legal professional is assigned exclusively to your case.

As well as offering peace of mind, our Legal Consultation and Representation Solution can give you:

- Free consultation to determine whether the Lawyer-Managed Solution is the right package for you
- Access to an online questionnaire form to give us full information about your case
- All of the necessary documents completed by a dedicated legal professional, who is assigned specifically to work on your case
- All of your claim forms completed automatically online, which means no waiting around and no forms disappearing in the post
- A 'letter before action' sent from Clive Rees and Associates to the custodial parent or guardian, giving 14 days to negotiate an out-of-court settlement
- Free email support, with all emails guaranteed to receive a response from one of our employment lawyers within 24 hours

Pre-Pay Representation

If you only need legal representation at a hearing or in court, Clive Rees and Associates can offer exactly what you need.

If you are confident in reaching a court case scenario but don't have the legal know-how to represent yourself, we have created a new Pre-Pay Representation Solution where you will be provided with one of our family law specialists to present your case. This means you will only receive legal representation from us, without paying for extra superfluous services.

Here at Clive Rees and Associates, we pride ourselves on delivering top-quality legal representation. We will employ our vast experience and specialist knowledge of family law cases and your case is guaranteed to be presented as strongly as possible.

We understand that every case is unique. We promise to act on your behalf in full accordance to your wishes, and our dedicated law professionals will offer ongoing expert advice and support throughout the case, and will remain fully responsive to your needs whilst we are in your service.

Initially, we will assess your case and establish the number of time blocks we feel would be necessary to offer you full legal representation. A time block equates to five hours of legal representation from one of our dedicated specialist lawyers at pre-case hearings, court case appearances and final case hearings.

This approach has proven to be very popular, as it offers complete flexibility and value for money. Our experience in family law cases means we will quickly provide an accurate written quotation. Our experience and insight guarantees the timeframe of your case will not be underestimated, so you can be assured that we will represent you to the end.

We can also promise that you won't be quoted a timeframe that is more than our legal expertise deems necessary: our expert lawyers will ensure you are represented by us for as long as is necessary – no more, no less.

If unforeseen events lead to the case being extended or postponed, it is possible to book further time blocks to maintain our legal representation, which receive a 10 per cent discount on the original price.

Please be aware that travelling time is deducted from a five-hour time block: if you live a five hour drive from our offices in Swansea, a full five-hour time block will be required simply to visit you.

If you would like to discuss our Pre-Pay Representation Solution package or any of our other packages without obligation, simply give us a call on 0800 840 5442 or use our online enquiry form and one of our friendly customer service agents will be happy to help.

Upgrade

Clive Rees and Associates Solicitors are always fully committed to providing the best in legal services. This can only be done by ensuring all of our attention is firmly focused on you. So, if there are any changes to your needs or requirements during your case then we will do our very best to accommodate this.

In most cases, we can offer you a simple Upgrade to one of our more comprehensive packages to provide further legal services. For example, you may decide you would prefer a professional lawyer to complete any relevant forms on our behalf, rather than filling in the forms yourself.

You can simply upgrade your chosen package to one which offers extra services, and Instead of charging you for the two separate services, we will simply allow you to upgrade your package. Clive Rees and Associates will guarantee you receive the very best legal advice and guidance, whilst saving you money.

It is even possible to add further time blocks onto your existing package with a discount of 10 per cent on the original full price: another way Clive Rees and Associates provide excellent value.

We offer our Upgrade service because we know that a legal case can prove expensive. We also know that it is more time-effective to have the same dedicated consultant handling your case in its entirety, ensuring the service we provide remains of the same high standard with someone who knows all of the details of your case, without any delays in dealing with your claim.

All of our packages are fully negotiable, and we will remain dedicated to providing the perfect solution to your legal needs.

Clive Rees and Associates are only too happy to tailor our packages according to your situation, and a free consultation will guarantee that you receive the best possible legal aid for your case, ensuring complete value for your money.

If you would like to discuss our Upgrade package or any of our other packages without obligation, simply give us a call on 0800 840 5442 or use our online enquiry form and one of our friendly customer service agents will be happy to help.
