Many people experience harassment or threatening behaviour at some point. If you are the subject of harassment, Clive Rees and Associates can offer you the support and guidance you need to resolve the situation.

Harassment appears in many forms, including:

- Stalking
- Domestic Violence
- Intimidation
- Physical or Sexual Abuse
- Verbal Threats of Violence

Of course, this list is unfortunately not exhaustive. Harassment can appear in many guises, and it ultimately comes down to what acts are perceived by a court of law as 'harassment'.

This is where Clive Rees and Associates can help. We are dedicated to the protection of your civil rights and can offer a wealth of legal experience in fighting your case. If you would like a team of experienced lawyers providing your legal aid, then Clive Rees and Associates would be delighted to offer assistance.

Our vast experience has seen our legal professionals successfully secure thousands of injunction orders. In 2008 we helped over 2,000 people just like you have injunction orders put into place which enabled them to regain their dignity and belief in the legal system.

We don't just offer legal aid: we like to think we offer peace of mind and security. Once you request our services to gain an injunction order, we will strive to have that order put into place. After our work is complete, you will be able to claim back your life, free of any harassment whatsoever.

Clive Rees and Associates are a focused team of lawyers with an extensive understanding of the processes involved in successfully procuring an injunction order on your behalf.

Our experience allows us to handle every single case with a unique approach. We know every person, and every case, is different, and we are committed to remaining fully adaptable in order to provide you with the legal support and advice you need.

Applying for an injunction order can seem like a huge step to take, and can cause enormous worry. Clive Rees and Associates will be there to provide comprehensive legal aid in a simple, straightforward manner from start to finish.

To find out how we can help you or if you would like to discuss any of our packages without obligation, simply give us a call on 0800 840 5441 or use our online enquiry form and one of our friendly customer service agents will be happy to help.

Case Management Solution

If you need an injunction order put into place, then Clive Rees and Associates Solicitors can supply all of the relevant forms to initiate the legal process.

But if you would prefer to have further legal support from our team of experienced injunction law specialists, we can complete the forms on your behalf to guarantee that your forms are completed in the correct manner and can be processed by the relevant county court without delay.

We have years of experience on our side and, together with our legal skill and expertise, we can offer a legal aid service that gets results. Our Case Management Solution will ensure that your forms are received promptly, and our dedication to accuracy means your case will begin immediately.

Legal jargon and technical terms can sometimes seem indecipherable – but to Clive Rees and Associates, this language is second-nature. We will complete all of the forms effortlessly, leaving you safe in the knowledge that your forms are being completed correctly and efficiently.

Simply complete an online form giving details of your case and our legal professionals will do all of the hard work for you. Following your online enquiry, we will provide:

- Free consultation to determine whether the Case Management Solution is the right package for you
- All of your claim forms being completed automatically online, which means no waiting around and no forms disappearing in the post
- Free email support, with all emails guaranteed to receive a response from one of our employment lawyers within 24 hours
- A 'letter before action' sent from Clive Rees and Associates to the other party, giving 14 days to refrain from harassment or threatening behaviour
- Having your completed documents safely posted to you, as well as a date to proceed to the next stage of your claim if the other party does not refrain from harassing or threatening behaviour.

Our Case Management Solution is the ideal way to allow a dedicated legal expert to process your case and ensure it receives recognition at county court level. Aside from saving you the tedium of filling out all of the relevant forms, we can save you the worry of incorrect or incomplete applications being returned, which will only prolong the period of harassment.

If you would like to discuss our Case Management Solution package or any of our other packages without obligation, simply give us a call on 0800 840 5441 or use our online enquiry form and one of our friendly customer service agents will be happy to help.

Legal Consultation and Representation Solution

If you are looking for court representation to ensure the highest level of legal support, Clive Rees and Associates Solicitors can provide a legal representation service of the highest order, at a substantially lower cost than high-street solicitors.

Our legal Consultation and Representation Solution offers the service of one of our professional legal advocates to exclusively work on your case from start to finish. With over 2,000 injunctions successfully enforced by our expert legal team in 2008, we are proven winners of injunction cases. Why not allow our dedicated and expert injunction law specialists handle your case?

Once assigned to your case, your personal legal consultant will work solely on your behalf to make certain you receive the very best in legal advice and support.

Clive Rees and Associates believe everyone has the right to a life without persecution: our injunction law experience and knowledge will protect you from the moment you allow us to fight your case.

As well as receiving the dedicated services of a professional lawyer, you will also benefit from:

- Free consultation to determine whether the Case Management Solution is the right package for you
- All of your claim forms being completed automatically online, which means no waiting around and no forms disappearing in the post
- Free email support, with all emails guaranteed to receive a response from one of our employment lawyers within 24 hours
- Free case tracking, allowing you full access to the status of your claim at all times
- A 'letter before action' sent from Clive Rees and Associates to the other party, giving 14 days to refrain from harassment or threatening behaviour
- Having your completed documents safely posted to you, as well as a date to proceed to the next stage of your claim if the other party does not refrain from harassing or threatening behaviour.

Consultation and Representation time consists of a block of five hours which may be used for one-to-one consultation with your dedicated legal expert either by telephone or in person, as well as pre-case hearings, court appearances and final case hearings.

Please be aware that travelling time is deducted from a five-hour time block: if you live a five hour drive from our offices in Swansea, a full five-hour time block will be required simply to visit you.

You have the option to choose subsequent five-hour blocks, which receive a 10% discount on the original price.

Choosing the Legal Consultation and Representation Solution means you will benefit from our years of experience throughout the process, and any queries or concerns will be addressed honestly, openly and expertly by our specialist legal adviser.

If you would like to discuss our Legal Consultation and Representation Solution package or any of our other packages without obligation, simply give us a call on 0800 840 5441 or use our online enquiry form and one of our friendly customer service agents will be happy to help.

Pre-Pay Representation Solution

If you are fully confident in your case preparation but lack the legal skill and experience to contest on your own behalf, Clive Rees and Associates can provide you with a top legal professional to present your case successfully.

Our new Pre-Pay Representation has been specifically designed with people like you in mind. We won't patronise or disregard your own progress on your case; just simply be there when you need the skills and experience only we can supply.

Clive Rees and Associates take great pride in delivering unrivalled legal aid no matter what demands our clients place upon us. We are committed to providing quality, flexible legal support that can adapt to any changes in any situation, and we will strive to ensure you receive only the best in legal representation.

We know that each case must be judged on its own merits – our legal service is not rigid. Our dedicated legal advisers are completely flexible, and will offer a fully receptive approach to your case throughout. That also means we will welcome any questions or concerns you may have, and will be only too happy to put your mind at ease whilst contesting your case.

Our Pre-Pay Representation Solution works around a time block framework. When assessing your case we will establish the number of time blocks we feel are required to ensure you get the best service we can provide. A time block is equal to five hours of legal representation from one of our dedicated specialist lawyers at pre-case hearings, court case appearances and final case hearings.

This approach has proven to be very popular, as it offers complete flexibility and value for money. Our experience in injunction law cases means we will quickly provide an accurate written quotation. Our experience and insight guarantees the timeframe of your case will not be underestimated, so you can be assured that we will represent you to the end.

We can also promise that you won't be quoted a timeframe that is more than our legal expertise deems necessary: our expert lawyers will ensure you are represented by us for as long as is necessary – no more, no less.

Clive Rees and Associates are dedicated to remaining fully flexible and responsive to your needs at all times. If your injunction case is extended or postponed, we can assure you that our legal services will be available for as long as you require them.

We guarantee to continue our legal representation of your case, and as we are committed to ensuring full cost-effectiveness, we will extend a discount of 10 per cent on the original price to you.

Please be aware that travelling time is deducted from a five-hour time block: if you live a five hour drive from our offices in Swansea, a full five-hour time block will be required simply to visit you.

If you would like to discuss our Pre-Pay Representation Solution package or any of our other packages without obligation, simply give us a call on 0800 840 5441 or use our online enquiry form and one of our friendly customer service agents will be happy to help.

Upgrade Solution

Clive Rees and Associates are always fully committed to providing the best in legal services. This can only be done by ensuring all of our attention is firmly focused on you. So, if there are any changes to your needs or requirements during your case then we will do our very best to accommodate this.

In most cases, we can offer you a simple Upgrade to one of our more comprehensive packages to provide further legal services. For example, you may decide you would prefer a professional lawyer to complete any relevant forms on our behalf, rather than filling in the forms yourself.

You can simply upgrade your chosen package to one which offers extra services, and Instead of charging you for the two separate services, we will simply allow you to upgrade your package. Clive Rees and Associates will guarantee you receive the very best legal advice and guidance, whilst saving you money.

It is even possible to add further time blocks onto your existing package with a discount of 10 per cent on the original full price: another way Clive Rees and Associates provide excellent value.

We offer our Upgrade service because we know that a legal case can prove expensive. We also know that it is more time-effective to have the same dedicated consultant handling your case in its entirety, ensuring the service we provide remains of the same high standard with someone who knows all of the details of your case, without any delays in dealing with your claim.

All of our packages are fully negotiable, and we will remain dedicated to providing the perfect solution to your legal needs.

Clive Rees and Associates are only too happy to tailor our packages according to your situation, and a free consultation will guarantee that you receive the best possible legal aid for your case, ensuring complete value for your money.

If you would like to discuss our Upgrade package or any of our other packages without obligation, simply give us a call on 0800 840 5441 or use our online enquiry form and one of our friendly customer service agents will be happy to help.
